ACADEMICS

SUPERINTENDENTS

With the departure of Dr. Walters in 1966, Mr. Sailer moved up from principal of the high school to his current position of Superintendent of Schools. In his first year as Superintendent, Mr. Sailer took charge of the school's largest building program since the construction of the high school. He also began to co-ordinate the curricula throughout the school system.

Mr. Moran is in charge of maintaining the school building. He also keeps the bus system running smoothly, determining what equipment is needed, and whether or not we should go to school on days of heavy snow.

MR. JAMES SAILER

MR. CARL MORAN

MR. CHARLES SELZER

PRINCIPALS

In his first year as principal, Mr. Selzer had a busy schedule. As principal, he guided the entire operation of the high school. His duties included many different tasks. He was in charge of planning classes and subject matter, supervising and appointing faculty members, and overseeing all extra-curricular activities.

Mr. Lafe Miller was promoted to assistant principal this year after a year of teaching math. His responsibilities ranged from the trivial to the sublime. Throughout the year, Mr. Miller could be found at such varied tasks as combating air pollution in the johns, dealing with discipline problems, or determining the calendar for the school year.

MR. LAFE MILLER

BOOSTERS

The Indian Hill Boosters Association helps finance school activities which cannot support themselves. This year, the Boosters purchased a new multilith press for the Chieftain and helped finance AFS, Girl's State, and Boy's State.

P.T.A.

The P.T.A. helps promote a better understanding and more co-operation between parents and the school. The P.T.A. sponsors many worthwhile activities for the whole community, such as the concert presented by the Cincinnati Symphony Orchestra. It also supports many activities designed to benefit the students, such as the book store, college night, the scholarship banquet, and the American Field Service. By allowing parents in the community the opportunity to work closely with the administration and faculty, the P.T.A. helps to promote better community support of the school and of school functions.

SCHOOL BOARD

The school Board must determine and supervise the long-range policies of the school system, making certain that our schools will continue to meet the educational needs of the community and the requirements set by the State Board of Education. This year's members were Mr. Wilkening, Mr. Moran, Mr. Shepard, Mrs. Lynch, Mr. Bidwell, Mr. Petrie, Mr. Sternberg, and Mr. Sailer.

Office secretaries: Mrs. Capozio, Mrs. Bramkamp, and Mrs. Kern

OFFICE

By taking care of the details of bureaucracy, the secretaries relieve faculty and administration of a heavy burden. Without the admittance slips, absentee lists, and tardy notes issued by the office, the school would grind to a halt. The office secretaries are perhaps as vital to the smooth operation of the school as Mr. Selzer.

MISS OLIVIA PROSSER

GUIDANCE

The guidance department helps the student plan his courses and select the college he wishes to attend. Miss Prosser and Miss Shelton aid underclassmen by helping them choose their courses. Miss Shelton and Miss Prosser also administer tests to freshmen and sophomores to determine their vocational interests and aptitudes.

Mr. Byron Himelick is in charge of helping juniors plan their senior courses and helping seniors in getting into college. During his first year in this position, Mr. Himelick showed the enthusiasm and hard work necessary to do an excellent job. Mrs. Kern helped ease Mr. Himelick's work load by helping to fill out the many forms demanded by college admissions offices.

MATHEMATICS

Number and order rule the universe.

Pythagoras

Mathematics is not a true science; it is purely an invention of man. Math is something contrived by man to help him solve problems. Math teaches strict logic and step-by-step thinking. In mathematics students are taught to apply general rules to specific situations. Mathematics also teaches students to deal in absolutes, for mathematics is a study in which questions have only one answer. Yet, in spite of its synthetic nature, mathematical patterns are the basis for all the conditions of the universe. Mathematical precision and order can be found in all natural phenomenon from the nucleus of the atom to the structure of the galaxies. The numerical patterns of math recur everywhere in nature, from the crystalline structure of a diamond, to the arrangement of colors on the wing of a butterfly.

ENGLISH

All imaginative literature is the symbolic expression of aspect of the human situation David Daiches

Literature gives students insight and perspective. By expressing and illuminating situations involving imaginary people, literature enables students to better understand themselves and others. By seeing the contrived experience of fictional characters, a student is able to experience situations outside of those in his own life. By relating the experiences of literature to his own life, the student learns to look outward and inward.

SCIENCE

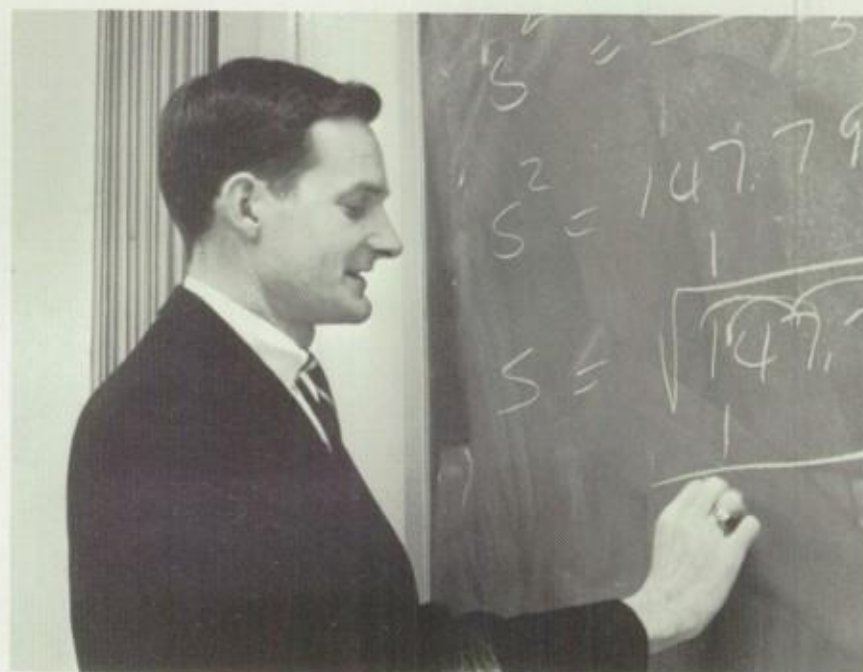

Science is the great antidote to the poisons of ignorance and superstition.
Adam Smith

The study of science is offered as an alternative to the superficial explanations of superstition and the facile acceptance of ignorance. By offering logical explanation of puzzling natural phenomena, science helps students understand how logical explanations are deduced. Science enables students to solve problems which appear at first glance impossible, thus increasing students' confidence in the powers of reason and logic. It is important for students to understand and have confidence in scientific explanation, for man by nature is too willing to use superstition to explain what he cannot understand or to ignore it entirely.

LANGUAGE

Language is the archives of history. It is fossil poetry.

Ralph Waldo Emerson

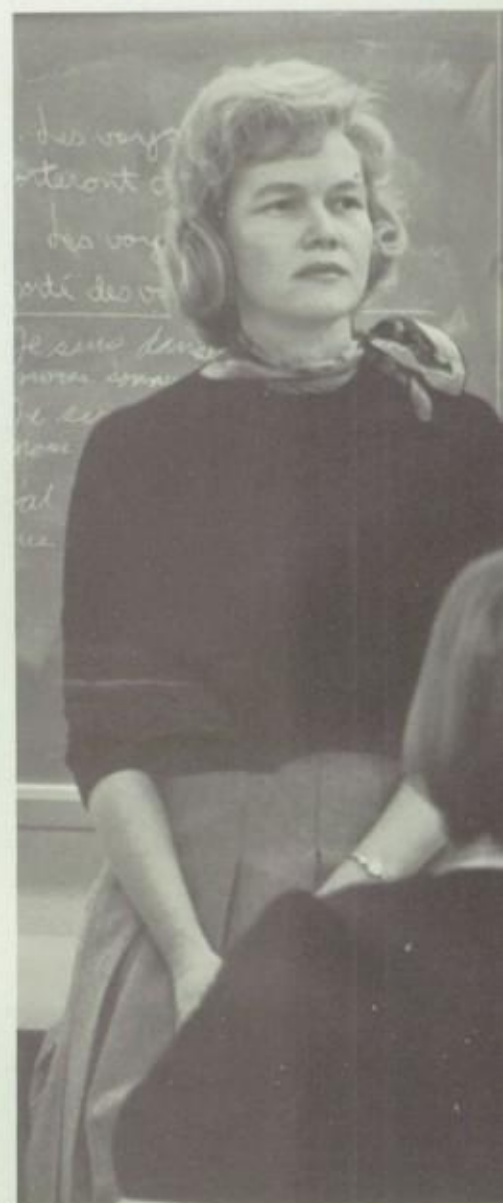

The language of a nation can often teach us more about that nation than all its history. A nation's language can give a student the temperament and way of thinking that is peculiar to every great language. By studying a nation's language and literature, one better understands the people and history of that nation for language is a kind of living history.

SOCIAL STUDIES

No man ever saw a government. I live at the very center of the government of the United States, but I have never seen the government of the United States. Woodrow Wilson

Courses in social studies teach the student to deal on a practical basis, with theories and ideas which are completely abstract. Social studies concentrates on concepts and forces which no one will ever see. Yet, perhaps because they are so abstract, these forces and ideas have a tremendous effect on our world. Social studies attempts to make students understand the true nature of the world by trying to reveal the abstractions which shape our society.

ART AND MUSIC

The object of art is to pull the trigger on emotion.

O. W. Holmes

Arts and music aim primarily at the emotions and sensitivities of the observer or listener. Students learn to use the media of art and music to act on the senses; they learn to use these media to evoke the desired emotions. The student playing a flute solo or drawing a contorted face are successful only if his work is able to provoke emotional response. Teaching students to produce this impact is perhaps the hardest job of any department. Art and music require much self-discipline and creativity before a student can begin to learn as an artist, for the subtle appeal that art and music make to the emotions is a difficult thing to master. By learning to create art, students also learn to appreciate the work of others.

VOCATIONAL ARTS

Never fear that those in business shall starve, for a man who qualifies himself well for his calling never fails of employment.
Thomas Jefferson

The vocational arts prepare students for immediate careers in business. Just as the culmination of any educational process is the teaching of an ability which can be put to use, the vocational arts program culminates the education of those who take jobs soon after high school. Students are equipped with knowledge which will enable them to take a functional place in society.

Coach Clark explains a play.

1966 BRAVES GO 9-1; FINISH THIRD IN CITY

The 1966 football season was one of the best ever for Indian Hill. The team won the Eastern Hills League championship, going undefeated against league opponents. The sole loss came against highly rated Wyoming.

In the season opener, the Braves defeated the Hamilton Fairfield Indians on their field, 28-8. A tight defense and quick offense marked the year's first victory.

A strong defense and a driving offense paved the way to victory for the Braves at the home field. The favored Aiken Falcons went down 20-0.

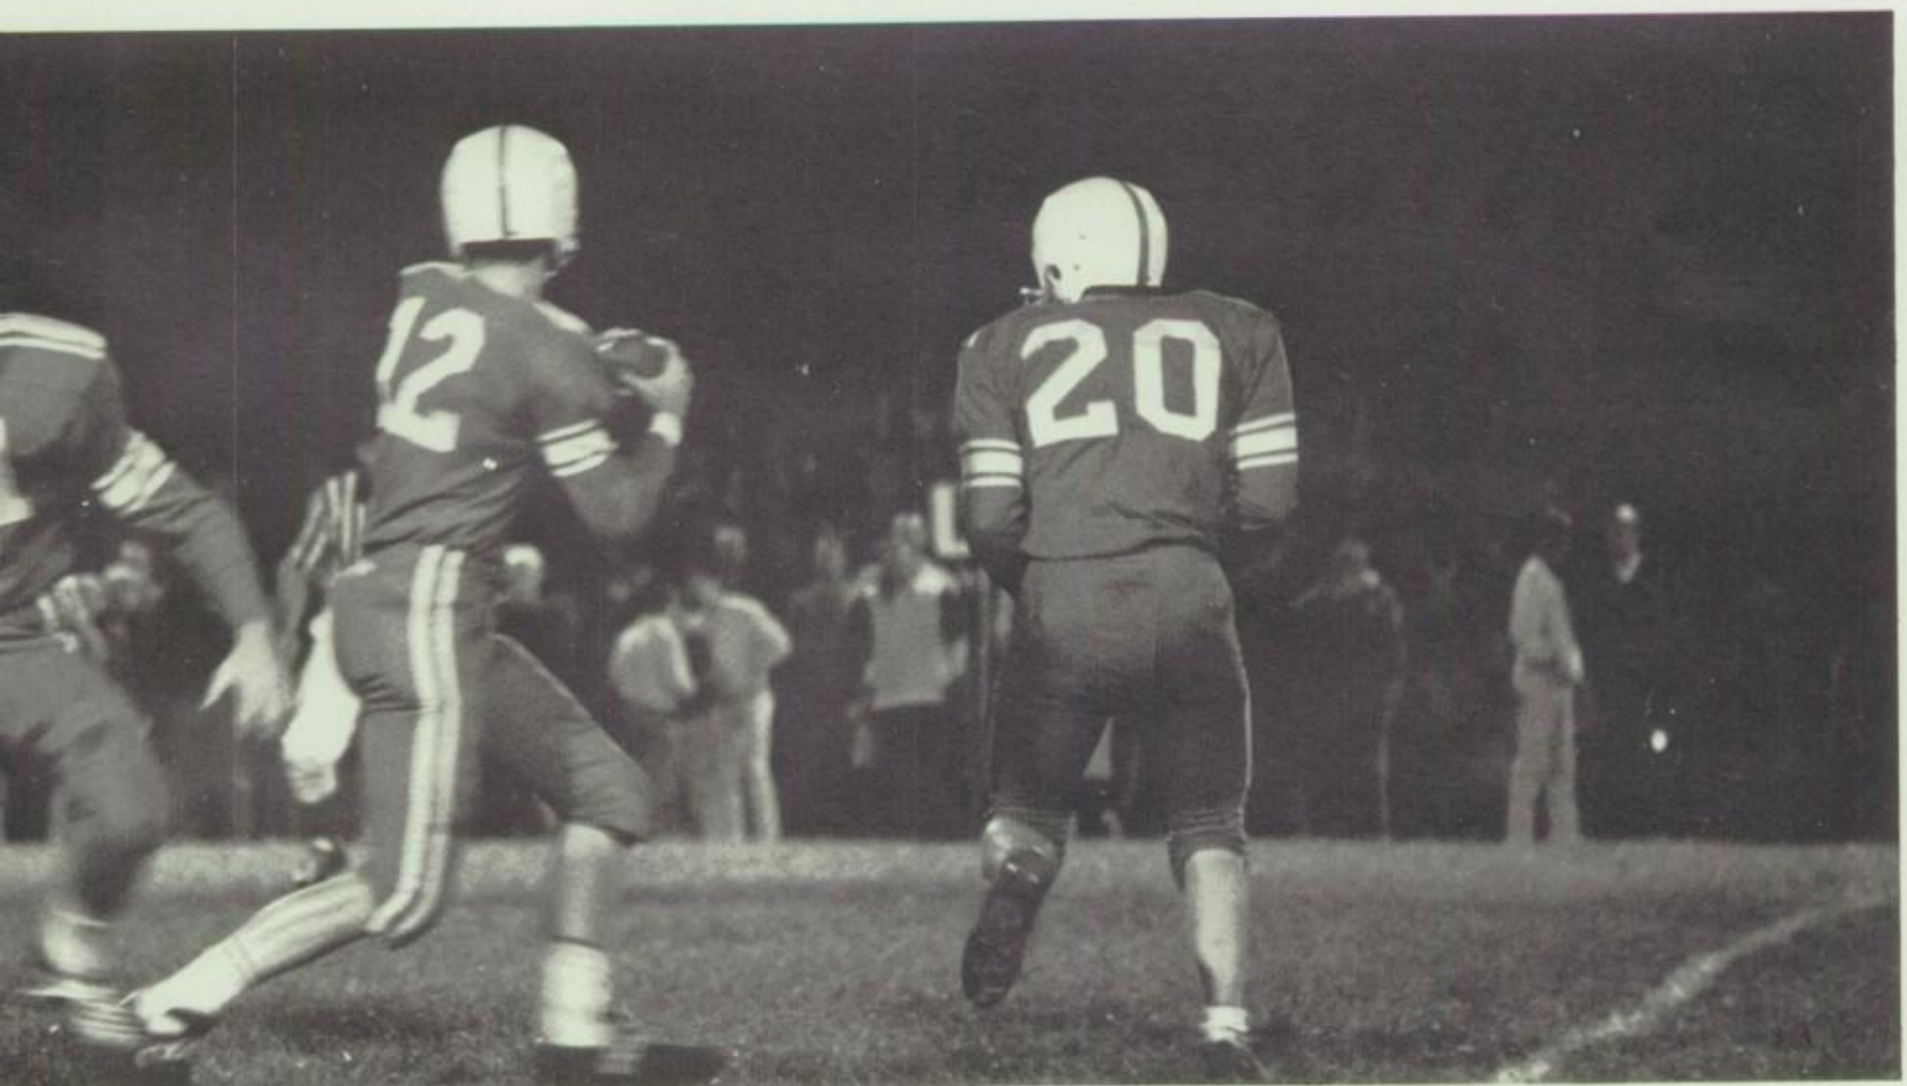

Terry's too tired to talk.

Dave Hall breaks loose from a tackler.

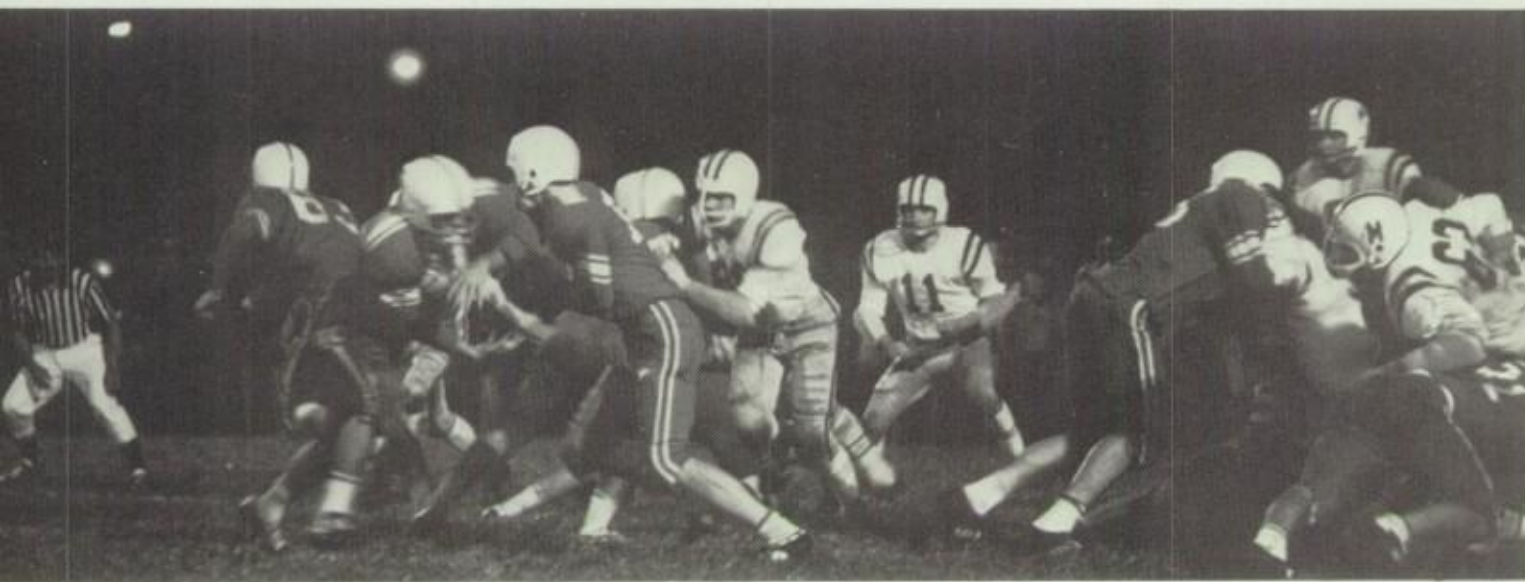

Coach Clark studies the situation.

INDIAN HILL GOES UNDEFEATED IN LEAGUE ACTION

The Brave defense prevailed again as it stopped Sycamore cold. The Brave offense, however, could not be overlooked as the unit drove for three scores. Final score: IH-26, Sycamore-8.

On a rainsoaked and muddy Loveland gridiron, the Braves squeezed by the favored Tigers, 8-6. Dave Mock's 60-yard run, and Terry Turner's conversion provided the winning points.

After getting behind by a touchdown, the Braves bounced back for an easy victory over the Mariemont Warriors. Dave Mock scored four touchdowns to pave the way for the 42-22 win.

The IH team next defeated the New Richmond Lions, 46-22 before a pleased Homecoming crowd. The Braves controlled the game from the start to mount a 46-0 halftime lead, then emptied the bench in the last half.

The Braves overwhelmed the Wildcats from Deer Park, 62-6, on our home field. Mr. Clark's boys built up a big lead and then coasted to an easy victory.

Showing a strong offense and defense, the Braves chalked up their eighth consecutive victory as they defeated the Madeira squad, 42-0.

STURDY DEFENSE AND EXPLOSIVE OFFENSE MARK 1966 BRAVES

The Braves took the league championship and remained undefeated as they smothered the visiting Milford eleven on a cold, wet Saturday night, 46-0.

The last game of the year proved to be as tough as had been forecast. IH went down to defeat at the hands of the highly ranked Wyoming Cowboys, 34-14. The Braves showed desire and spirit as they kept fighting to the last second.

The loss to Wyoming did not mar an excellent season. The Braves played well throughout the entire year and finished third in the city and twenty-sixth in the state. A combination of strong defense, and quick explosive offense, enabled the 1966 Braves to establish themselves as one of the finest teams ever at Indian Hill.

George Marshall keeps his fingers limber.

BASKETBALL BRAVES WIN LEAGUE CO-TITLE; FINISH 17-3

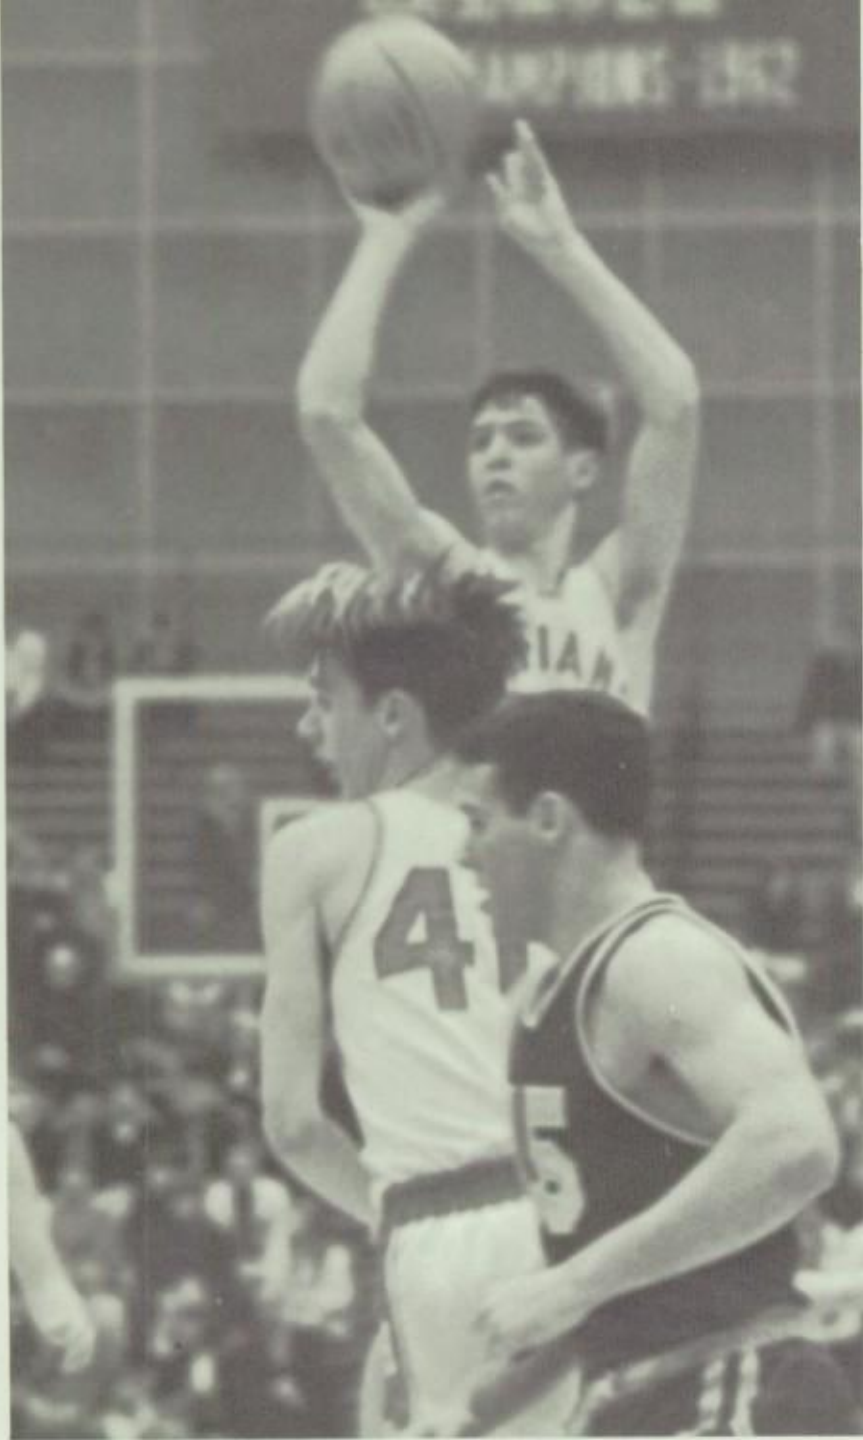

The Braves finished the 1966-67 season with the best record in school history. The team finished with a 17-3 slate, the best in the area. The varsity Braves won the league co-championship while the junior varsity also won the league co-title. Led by Frank Hosea and Don Williams, Indian Hill went to the quarter-finals of the district tournament. A strong defense and tall offense made the 1967 Braves the finest team ever at Indian Hill.

The season opened with a string of easy victories. Newcomer Mike Mickler led the Braves over New Richmond 72-37 in the season opener.

Mr. Gardener gives advice.

In the next game, the Braves exploded in the second half to overcome a 24-23 Deer Park lead at half-time and cop a 55-40 victory. In their highest scoring game of the season, the Braves scored 81 points to top Madeira. The Braves romped to victory over Glen Este, the first non-league opponent. Steve Smith and Buzz Lombear came off the bench to lead the Braves to victory.

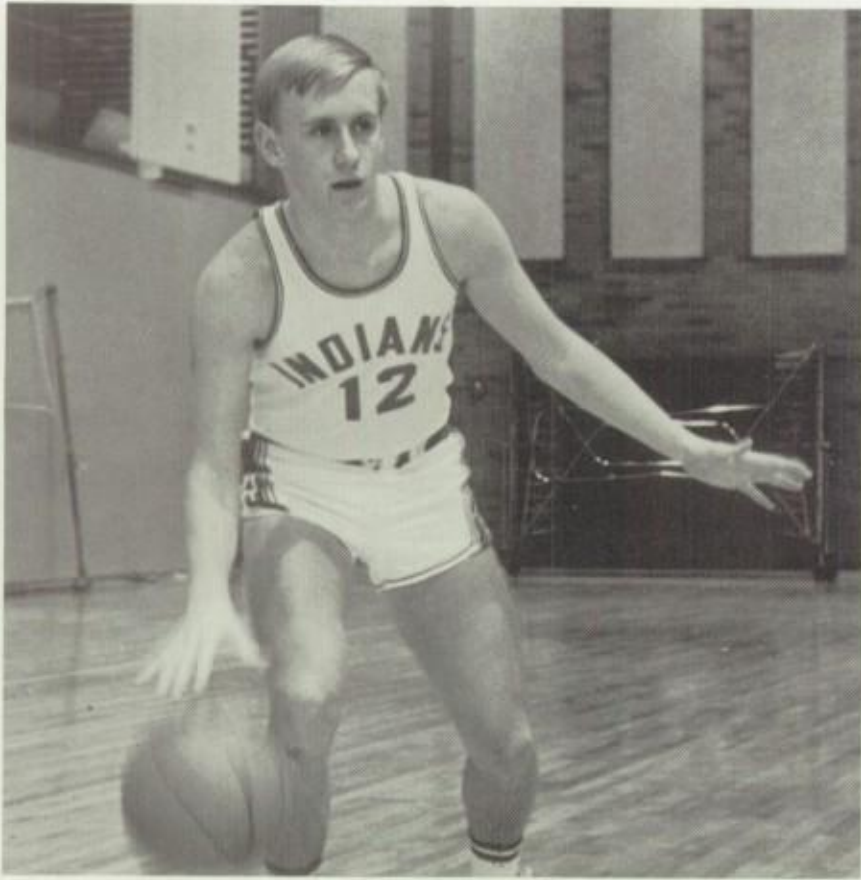

The sixth game of the season gave the Braves their toughest contest of the season against the Sycamore Aviators. The lead see-sawed through the first half till Sycamore began to pull away in the third quarter. Early in the last quarter, the Aviators grabbed a ten-point lead, but the Braves finally began to come back with one second to go Buzz Lombear missed the final shot of the game, and Sycamore won 58-60.

In the next game, against second place Mariemont, the Braves played their worst opening quarter of the season, falling behind 12-1. But the Braves came back to mount a 30-25 lead. Led by Warren McConnell, the Braves overcame the Warriors to carry off an important victory.

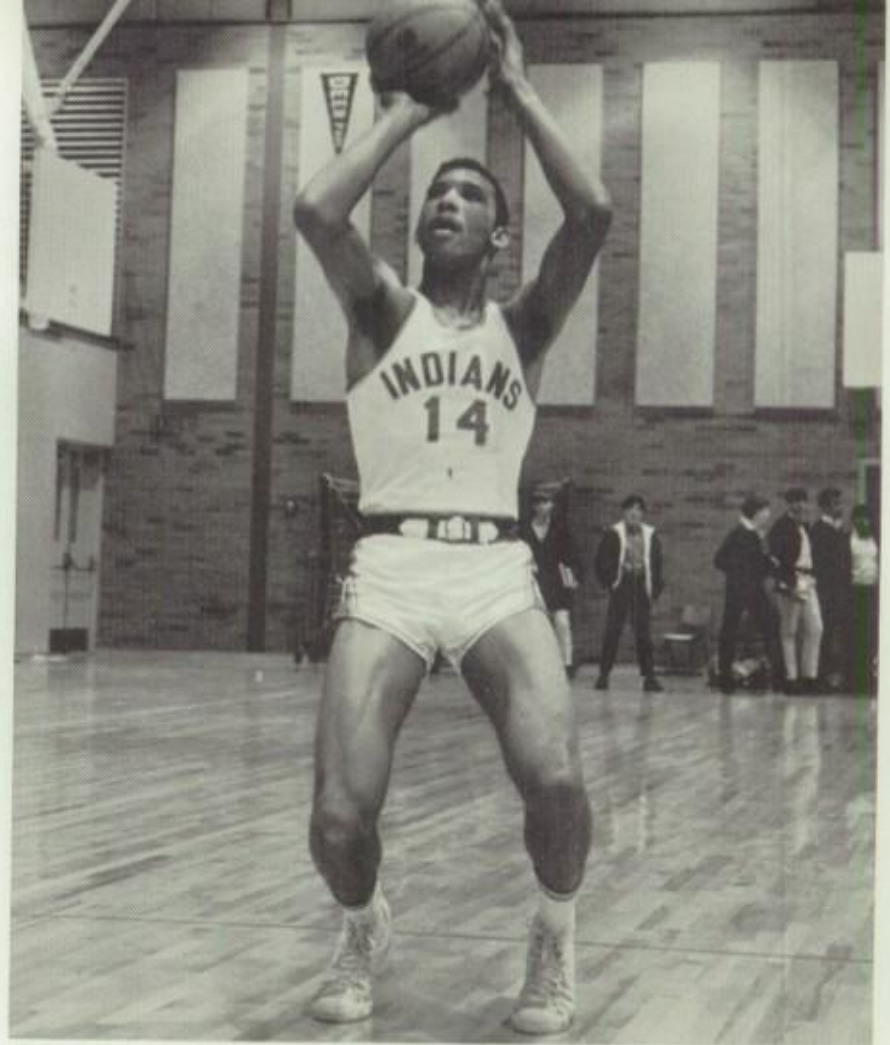

Against Loveland, the Braves played their most unusual game of the season. Loveland used a stall throughout the first quarter. At the end of the quarter, Loveland led 3-2. Then the Braves pushed to a 15-7 half-time, and finally were able to put the game away in the last quarter. New Richmond was an easy victory as everyone on the team scored. Deer Park was also an easy opponent as the Braves rolled to a 72-37 victory.

Against Madeira, the Braves got their biggest scare of the season. Mike Mickler made two last-minute field goals to send the close-fought game into overtime. In the overtime, the Braves again came from behind to tie it up in the last minute. Finally, in the second overtime period, the Braves pulled ahead. Steve Smith's six free throws provided the winning margin.

After defeating Milford, the Braves went to Sycamore to try to avenge their only loss of the season. The lead saw-sawed back and forth throughout the first three quarters, but Sycamore pulled off a 48-42 lead entering the final quarter. Missing several opportunities to close the gap, the Braves were never able to catch up, and lost 59-52.

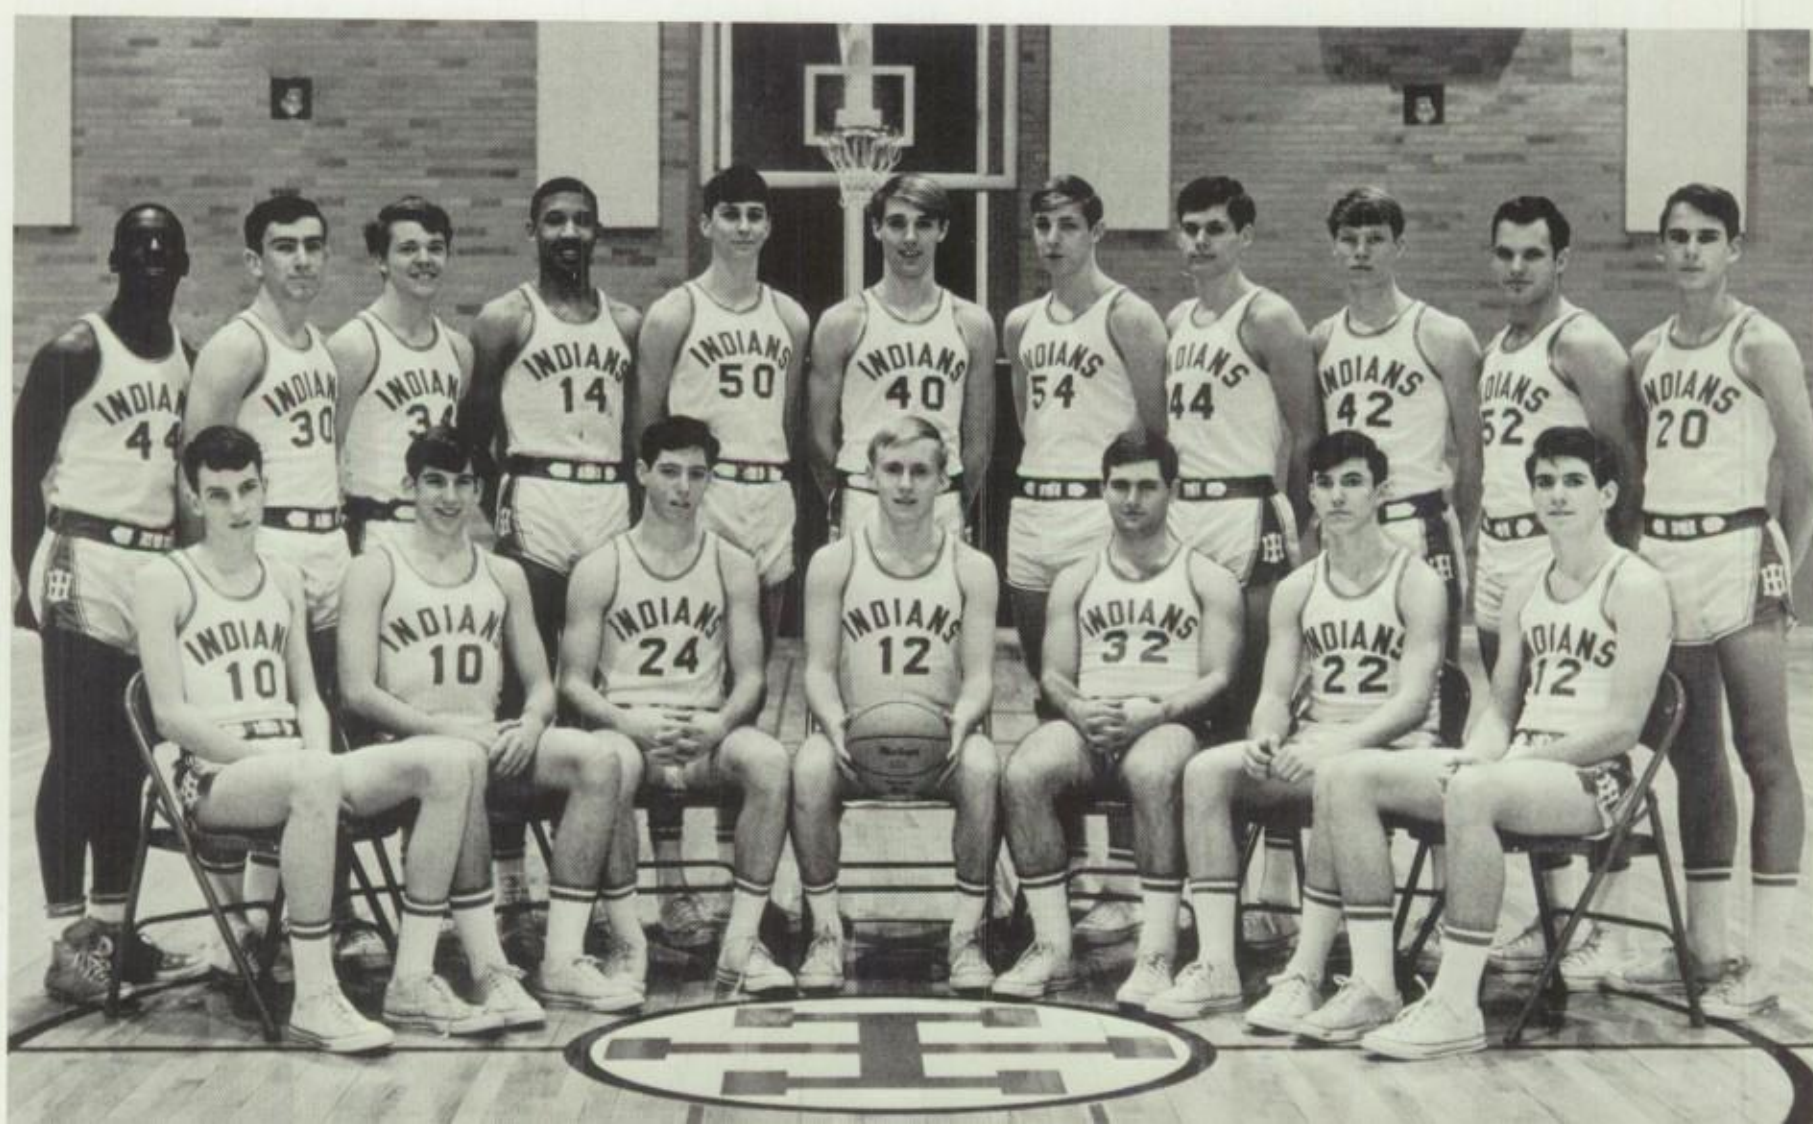

Next the Braves rolled to easy victories over Mariemont and Country Day. In the final game of the regular season, with the league title at stake, the Braves downed Loveland. It took three overtimes but the Braves finally won an E.H.L. basketball title.

In the tournament, the fourth-seeded Braves ran off three straight victories to run their record to 16-2 to reach the quarter finals.

In the quarter finals, Indian Hill met Mariemont for the third time this season. Mariemont led throughout the first half, but the Braves began to pull closer in the third quarter. In the last quarter, the Braves finally came alive. Outside shooting by Steve Smith and driving lay-ups by Frank Hosea closed the gap and sent the game into overtime. But Mariemont jumped to a quick lead and Mike Mickler's last second desperation shot fell short as the Braves ended the season with a 17-3 record.

The 1967 season saw many track records broken at Indian Hill. In all, six records fell during the season and many of these were broken several times. Warren McConnell and Roger Pryor were the outstanding seniors on this year's team. Warren set one record for the 440-yard dash and tied the old record in the 220-yard dash. Roger Pryor set a new record in the discus. New records were also set by several juniors. Wayne Robinson set a new mark in the two-mile-run, and Pierce Klemmt set a new record in the pole vault. Ray Raffurty tied the record time in the 120-yard high hurdles. Coach McKibbon's track men finished fifth in the Eastern Hills League and also finished sixteenth out of twenty-six teams in the district meet.

IH FACES TWO NO-HITTERS

This year's Varsity Baseball team finished third in a tight league race, right behind Milford and Deer Park. The Braves finished the season with a 9-4 record, with victories over league rivals Mariemont and Sycamore. The Braves had the distinction this year of having two no-hitters pitched at them, one of which they managed to win 1-0 over league champion Milford. Outstanding performances were turned in by pitchers Mike Mickler, Rick Hosea, and Steve Brandt, and hitters Jack Martin, Charlie Schmidt, and Dave Mock. Coach Martin also deserves much of the credit for the success of this year's baseball team.

The Junior Varsity, however, did not fare so well. Failures to come up with key hits eliminated the J.V. Braves early from the top spot in the E.H.L. Fireballing Dan Ritts pitched well, but too often his teammates failed to provide the necessary runs. Dan Flerlage, Harry Nisonger, and Ken Hoffman provided most of the hitting power for the J. V. Braves.

SWIMMING

This year's swim team excelled in many individual events. The mermen sent six representatives to the State High School Swimming Championships. Steve Fogg, Wayne Robinson, George Ten Eyck, and Bob Sinsheimer qualified in the 200 meter medley relay. Marc Middleton qualified in the 200 meter individual medley and Bob Sinsheimer went to the state competition in the 100 meter freestyle, setting several records during the season. The team also fared well in dual meet competition, beating many of the best teams in the area.

WRESTLING

The Indian Hill Matmen had outstanding performances by several individuals. In the Eastern Hills League Tournament, Indian Hill had winners in four divisions, more than any other school. However, a lack of second and third place finishes prevented the IH team from taking the title in their second year of wrestling competition. Division champions from Indian Hill included Steve Taylor, Ralph Farmer, Geoff Strauss and Scott Gum. Scott, in his first year of wrestling was an upset winner in his weight class. He was also the only first-year man to win a division title.

NETTERS E.H.L. CHAMPS

Under Coach Boyd Mahan, the I.H. tennis team won a fourth consecutive league championship. After winning all four E.H.L. matches, the raquetteers swept through the tournament, dominating the finals. During the regular season, the Braves finished 15-6, playing one of the toughest slates in the city.

GIRLS TENNIS REVITALIZED

Girl's Tennis Team; Cindy Bridgeland, Amy Hinsch, Cindy Stowell, Laurie Riecks, Pam Ventress, Emily Bates, Miss Bock.

The revitalized girls' tennis team, under the leadership of Miss Bock, recovered from last year's 0-3 season to post a 4-3 record for 1967. Freshman Cindy Bridgeland, playing first singles, was undefeated in her seven matches. Laurie Riecks and Cindy Stowell played second and third singles. The first doubles position was held by Amy Hinsch and Pam Ventress while Sue Whitney and Emily Bates played second doubles.

The girls' golf team, coached by Miss Mayers, is one of the newest teams at Indian Hill. The girls played several matches with nearby schools. In the Wyoming Invitational against all the girls' golf teams in the area, the girls finished fourth in a field of eight. Susie Montgomery and Beth Delaplaine turned in fine performances throughout the season with consistently low scores.

Girl's Golf Team; Judy Fassold, Adria Dorman, Patti Pater, Beth Delaplaine, Coach Mayers, Susie Montgomery, Nancy Butler, Pam Ventress, Jo Ann Smith.

GIRL'S TRACK

This year was one of the best ever for girls' track. Miss Shelton's track women won both dual meets of the season over Princeton and Hamilton Garfield. In the big meet, in which most of the district teams participated, the girls took first place, defeating rivals from eight different schools. Chris Edmonds excelled in the high jump while Peggy Murphy won the 100-yard dash, and Diane Mallott won the 50-yard dash. Emily Harrison won the hurdles and Barb Lynch won the 880-yard run. Adele Harrison and Stephanie Chapman performed well in the jumping events to give Indian Hill a substantial victory over seven other teams.

The girl's track team was the school's only unbeaten athletic team.

GIRL'S HOCKEY

This year's girl's hockey team, with twenty-one members was one of the largest ever. Coached by Miss Shelton, the girls also enjoyed a fine season. The amazon aces played an especially difficult schedule, going against such notoriously difficult teams as Oxford Tallawanda and Princeton. Consistently fine performances throughout the season were turned in by Sandy Nethercott, Cindy Stowell, Carolyn Natticchioni, Debby Mehas, and Linda Carroll.

CHEERLEADERS EXCITE SCHOOL SPIRIT

This year's cheerleading squad was the biggest and the loudest ever. Led by four-year veterans Rae-Jeanne Carr and Lois Wagner, and highlighted by the ever-beaming visage of Kathy Creger, the cheerleaders stirred up school spirit throughout the year.

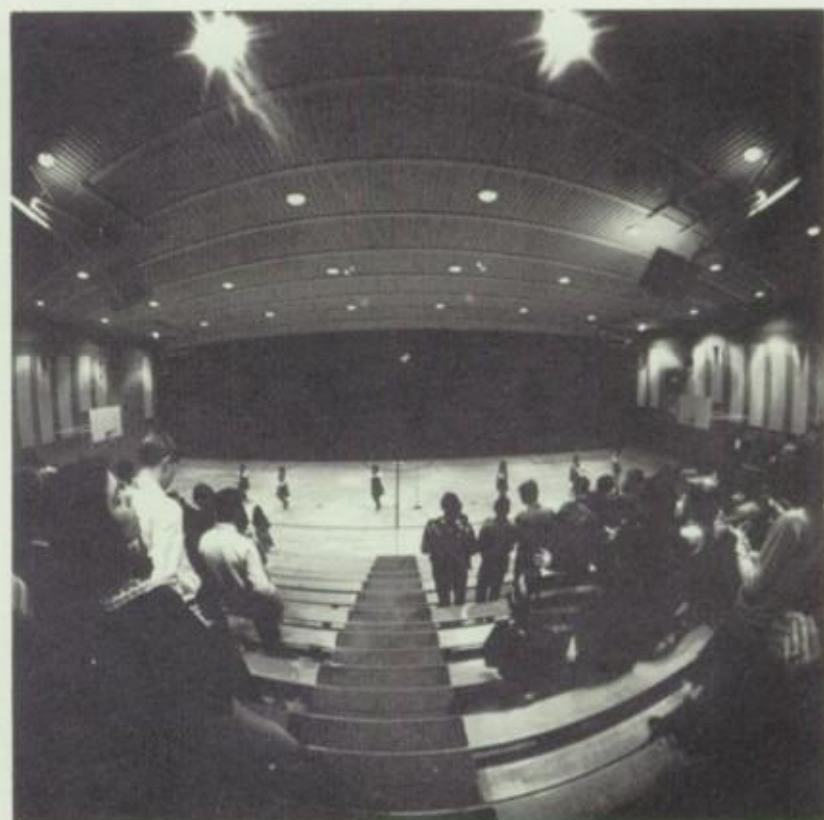

This year the cheerleaders initiated the Pep Club, to arouse school spirit and to enable underclassmen to attend away games. The cheerleaders helped to kick off the football season with the traditional pep rally, and also sponsored another rally during the year. The girls also promoted understanding between schools by meeting cheerleaders of rival teams and making friends thus helping Indian Hill in trying to win the Eastern Hills League sportsmanship award.

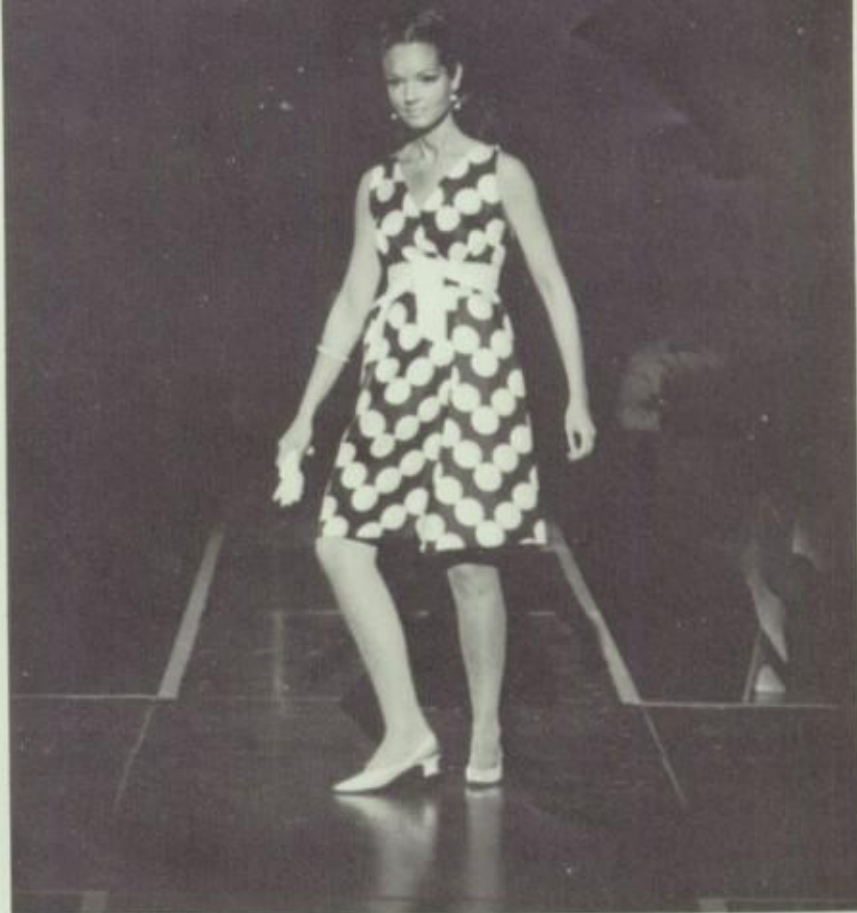

ACTIVITIES

POW-WOW BECOMES PARIS NIGHT CLUB

FLOOR SHOW

This year's Pow-Wow for the first time did not use the stage setup of recent years. Instead of converting the gymnasium into a stage, Mr. Snapp, Mrs. Wirthlein, and her art students transformed the floor of the gym into a Paris nightclub, complete with food and drink served by Parisien beauties. Using the theme of "Paris Holiday", a stage was constructed in the shape of a cross and tables were set up on the floor with the stage. All the acts were presented within a few feet of much of the audience. In spite of this drastic change, the format of the Pow-Wow remained similar to other Pow-Wows. There were skits written by Mr. Kincaid, singing and dancing, and the ever-sexy pony chorus. The Pow-Wow orchestra under the direction of Mr. Snapp, again provided lively accompaniment. Between acts, as an added Parisien highlight, models from Pogue's put on a fashion show with the latest Parisien clothes.

SENIOR CLASS PLAY

The Class of 1967, under the veteran leadership of Mr. Kincaid, presented the stage version of the Max Schulman comedy, Rally 'Round the Flag Boys. The play centers around the comedy of a clash between the people of a typical suburb and the military brass as the Pentagon decides to locate a missile base in the suburb. Bill Ratliff and Chris Lohr played the lead roles while Su DeMar, Geoff Strauss and Jim Koch performed well in supporting roles. Dick Judd, Bill Soyars, and Phil Cottrel got many laughs as a trio of motorcycle hoods. Steve Kline also performed well.

The tug of war has become a traditional Olympic Day event.

JUNIORS WIN

Muffy Lamson, tricycle champion.

OLYMPIC DAY 1967

Olympic Day, again this year, gave students a day to wear shorts to school and throw eggs at each other. This year an Ugly Man contest became part of Olympic Day. David Brooks, was named Ugly Man for 1967.

In the inter-class competition, the Juniors won first place, followed by the Sophomores, Freshmen, and the Seniors. Most of the senior class was not allowed to attend Olympic Day in retaliation for Senior Skip Day. This wounded the Seniors deeply.

FOOTBALL HOMECOMING

The 1966 football homecoming took place in perfect form. On a clear warm Friday night, after the Queen's float had circled the football field, the Queen was named. Football captain Warren McConnell and Charlie Schmidt presented Queen Jenny Lamson with the traditional long-stemmed roses. Other senior nominees were Bev Easton escorted by Phil Cottrell, Rae-Jeanne Carr escorted by Kevin Burns, Barb Kurth escorted by Skip Schauer, and Kay Knight, escorted by John Mitchell. The Queen's attendants were Connie Mitchell, Adele Sinshiemer, and Bizzie Kerr from the junior, sophomore, and freshmen classes.

Kay, Barb, Bev, Jenny, and Rae-Jeanne.

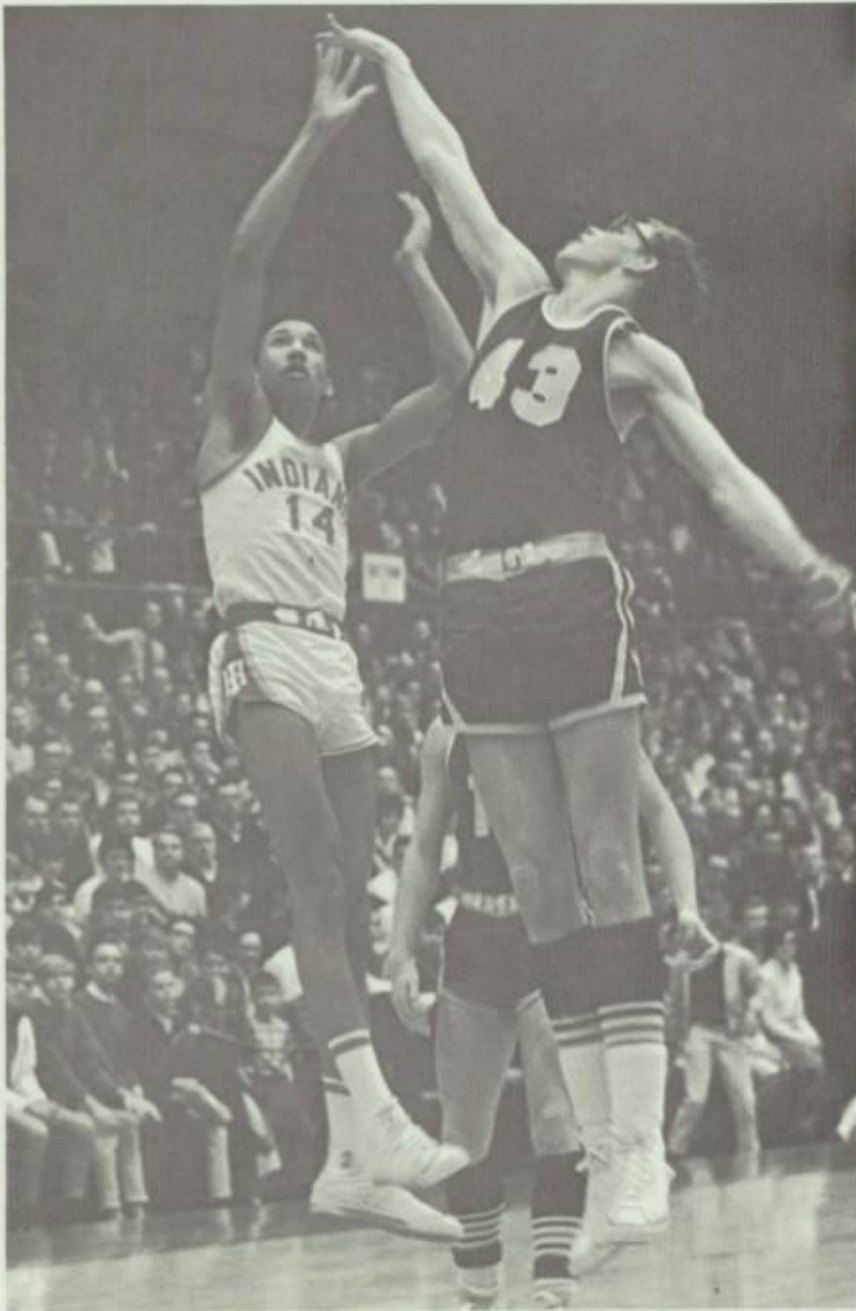

BASKETBALL

This year's basketball homecoming, sponsored by the senior class, was one of the most unusual ever. The cafeteria was transformed by Wayne Bladh and his leprechauns (Lynne Gellenbeck and Nanci Pierce) into the "Braves Den Ski Lodge". Music was provided by "Them" and "The Strangers in Town".

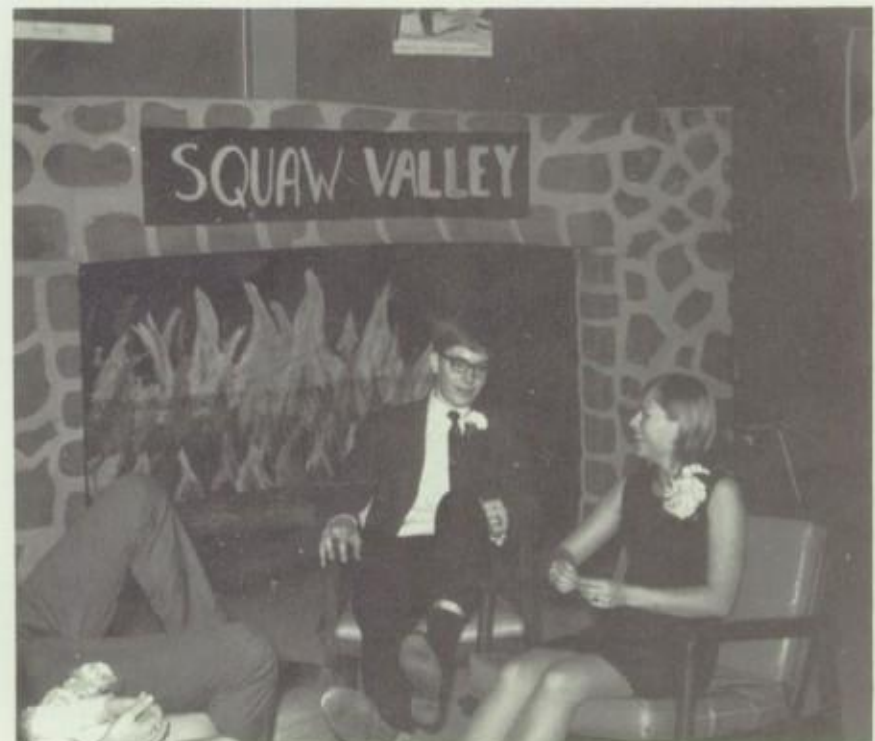

During half-time, Lois Wagner was named Queen. Other senior nominees were Kathy Creger, Vigee Seelen, Bev Easton, and Rae-Jeanne Carr. The Queen's court was made up of junior attendant Pam Reusser, sophomore attendant Kay Castle, and freshman representative Holly Pfister.

Queen Lois and her escort, Dave Mock.

Senior nominees and their escorts; Vigee Seelen and Gary Wald, Rae-Jeanne Carr and Roger Pryor, Lois Wagner and Dave Mock, Kathy Creger and Rick Wulff, Bev Easton and Phil Cottrell.

JUNIORS PRESENT FIRST DRAMA; DINO

This year, for the first time, the junior class was not a comedy. Instead, the class of 1968 tackled a drama. Dino is the story of the rehabilitation of a teen-age delinquent after his release from a reformatory in which he has spent four years for a brutal murder. After his release, Dino meets with a cold shoulder from the world around him and finds that no one really cares about his problems.

Miss Selzer directed this difficult production, with Kathy Howard as assistant director. The production crew was headed by Mr. Powers, with Judy Arms and Rick Groth on properties, Gary Carelli and Rick Groth on lighting and Barb Welch in charge of costumes. Doug Lovett played the difficult role of Dino, while Nola Dick portrayed the female lead. Creditable performances were also turned in by Rob Mayer, Sally Starr, and Melissa Raffurty.

STUDENT COUNCIL

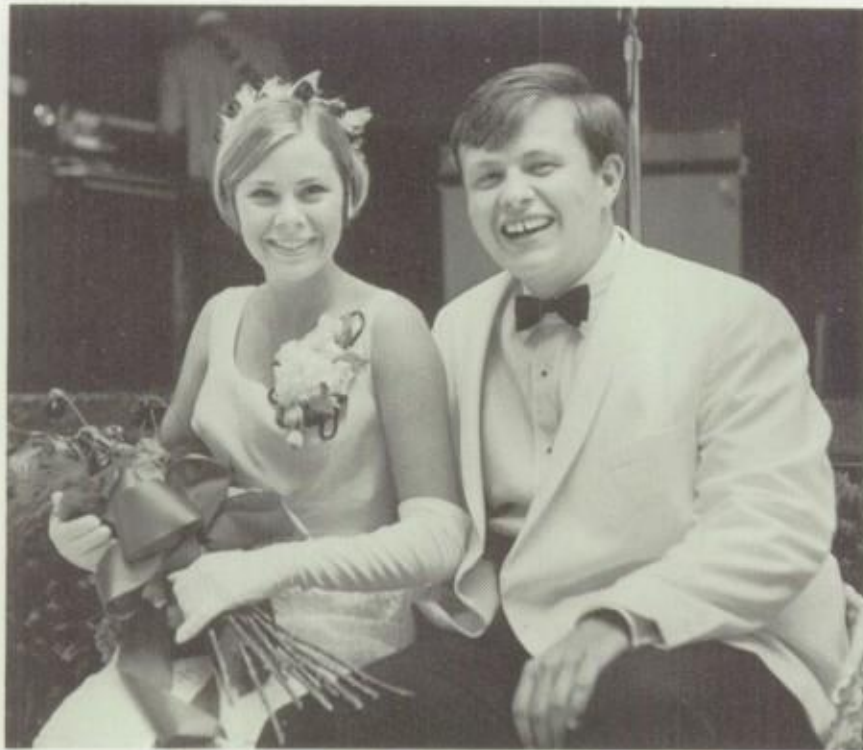

Geoff Strauss led the Student Council this year in a year of progress. The Council joined the Greater Cincinnati Association of Student Councils and quickly became a leader in this area. The Council sponsored the spirit contest and pep buses to away games. Olympic day was another event sponsored and planned by the Student Council. This year, the Council initiated the practice of voter registration to insure that only interested students would vote. An amendment was also added to the constitution limiting the size of the Council, and reducing the number necessary for a quorum. All in all, it was another active year for the Indian Hill Student Council.

NATIONAL HONOR SOCIETY

The National Honor Society's purpose is to honor those students who have maintained at least a 3.4 grade average and who have displayed the qualities of scholarship, leadership, service, and character in their high school years.

The National Honor Society is sponsored by Mr. Powers and the members are selected by the faculty, with only 25% of the eligible candidates being elected to membership. The Society had its first nighttime initiation this year, which enabled the parents to attend. Jay Chewning, the president, conducted the initiation. Miss Graham sponsored the senior class and Mr. Fell the junior class. Mr. Selzer presented the new members, 8 seniors and 9 juniors.

PROM 1967

The 1967 Prom was held May 26 in the ballroom of the Sheraton-Gibson Hotel. Table decorations highlighted the theme of this year's Prom and the Trendells, a popular group from Louisville provided the music.

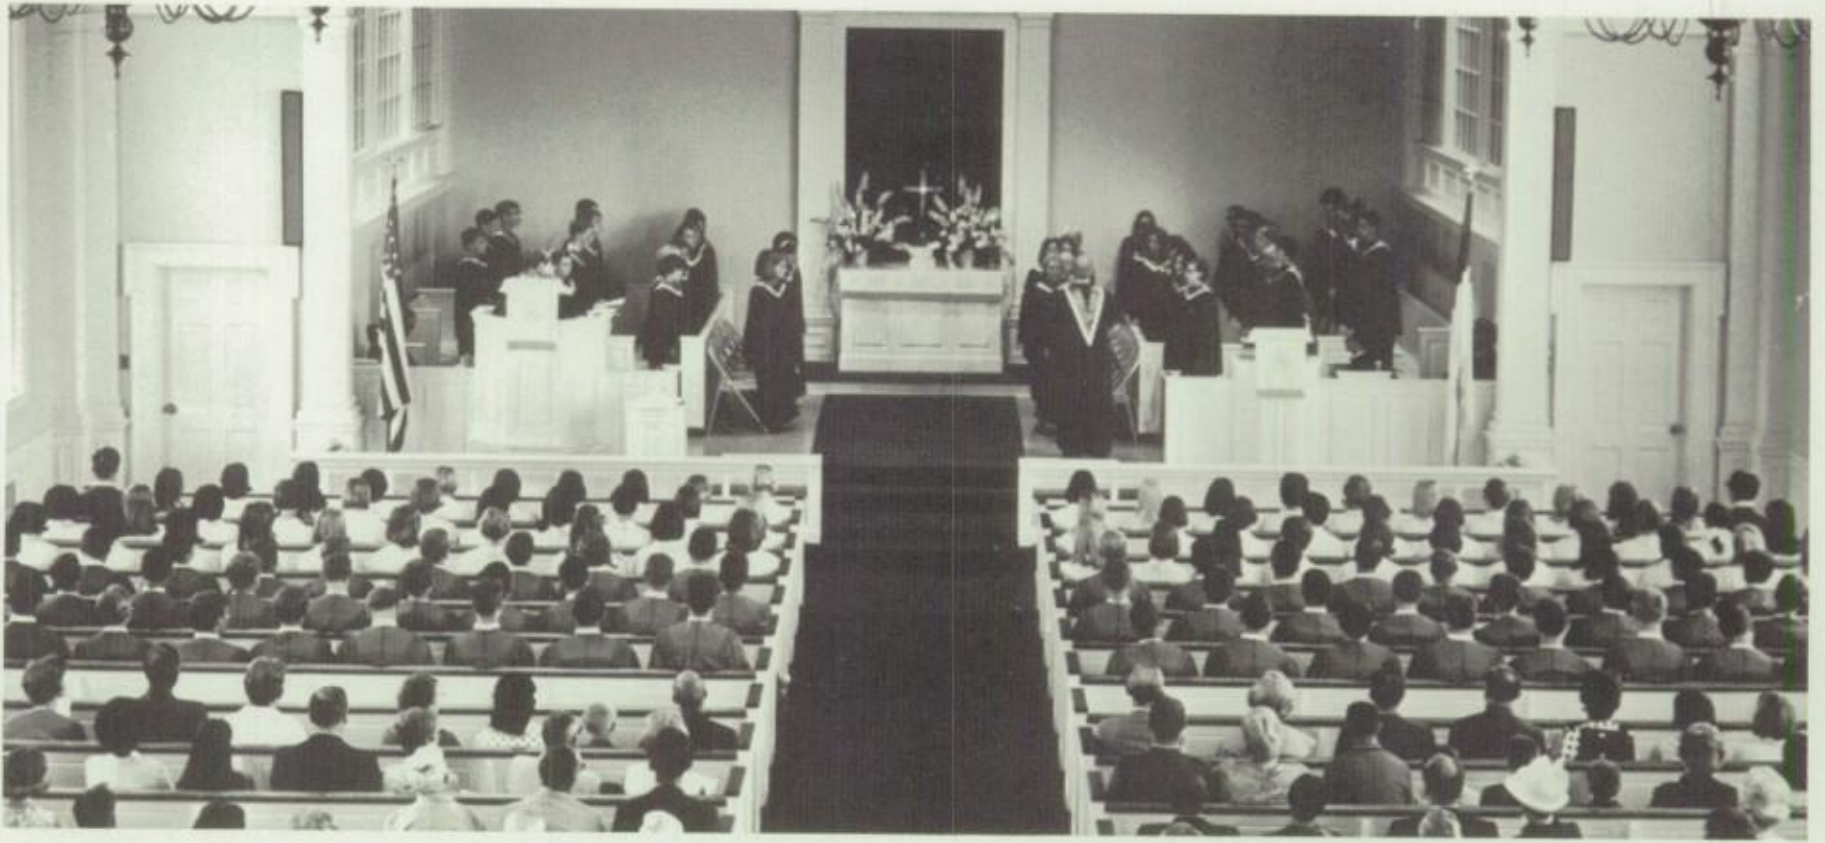

At midnight, the 1967 Prom Queen and King were crowned. Connie Sibcy, who was presented with a dozen red roses, and her escort Jim Rust reigned as Prom Queen and Prom King. Kay Knight, Barb Kurth, Debby Hoffman, and Bev Easton served as attendants. After the Prom, many people attended the breakfast service sponsored by the Junior class at Armstrong chapel.

BACCALAUREATE

The Baccalaureate service was held on Sunday June 4, at Armstrong Chapel. Wayne Bladh and Doug Seitz, as valedictorian and salutatorian, led the class during the services. The invocation and scripture lesson were given by the Reverend Robert Andrews of the Kenwood Christian Church. Father Sullivan of St. Gertrudes Church delivered the class sermon, urging the class of 1967 not to repeat the mistakes of the last generation. The Reverend Beittel of Armstrong Chapel gave the benediction. The high school choir, under the direction of Mr. Cox, sang several numbers to deepen the inspiration of the service.

COMMENCEMENT

This year's graduating class was the largest ever at Indian Hill. As the band played Pomp and Circumstance, 185 seniors marched onto the football field to take their seats and receive their diplomas. Mr. Bruce Petrie, chairman of the Board of Education, handed the diplomas to the Class of 1967 while parents and spectators looked on from the bleachers.

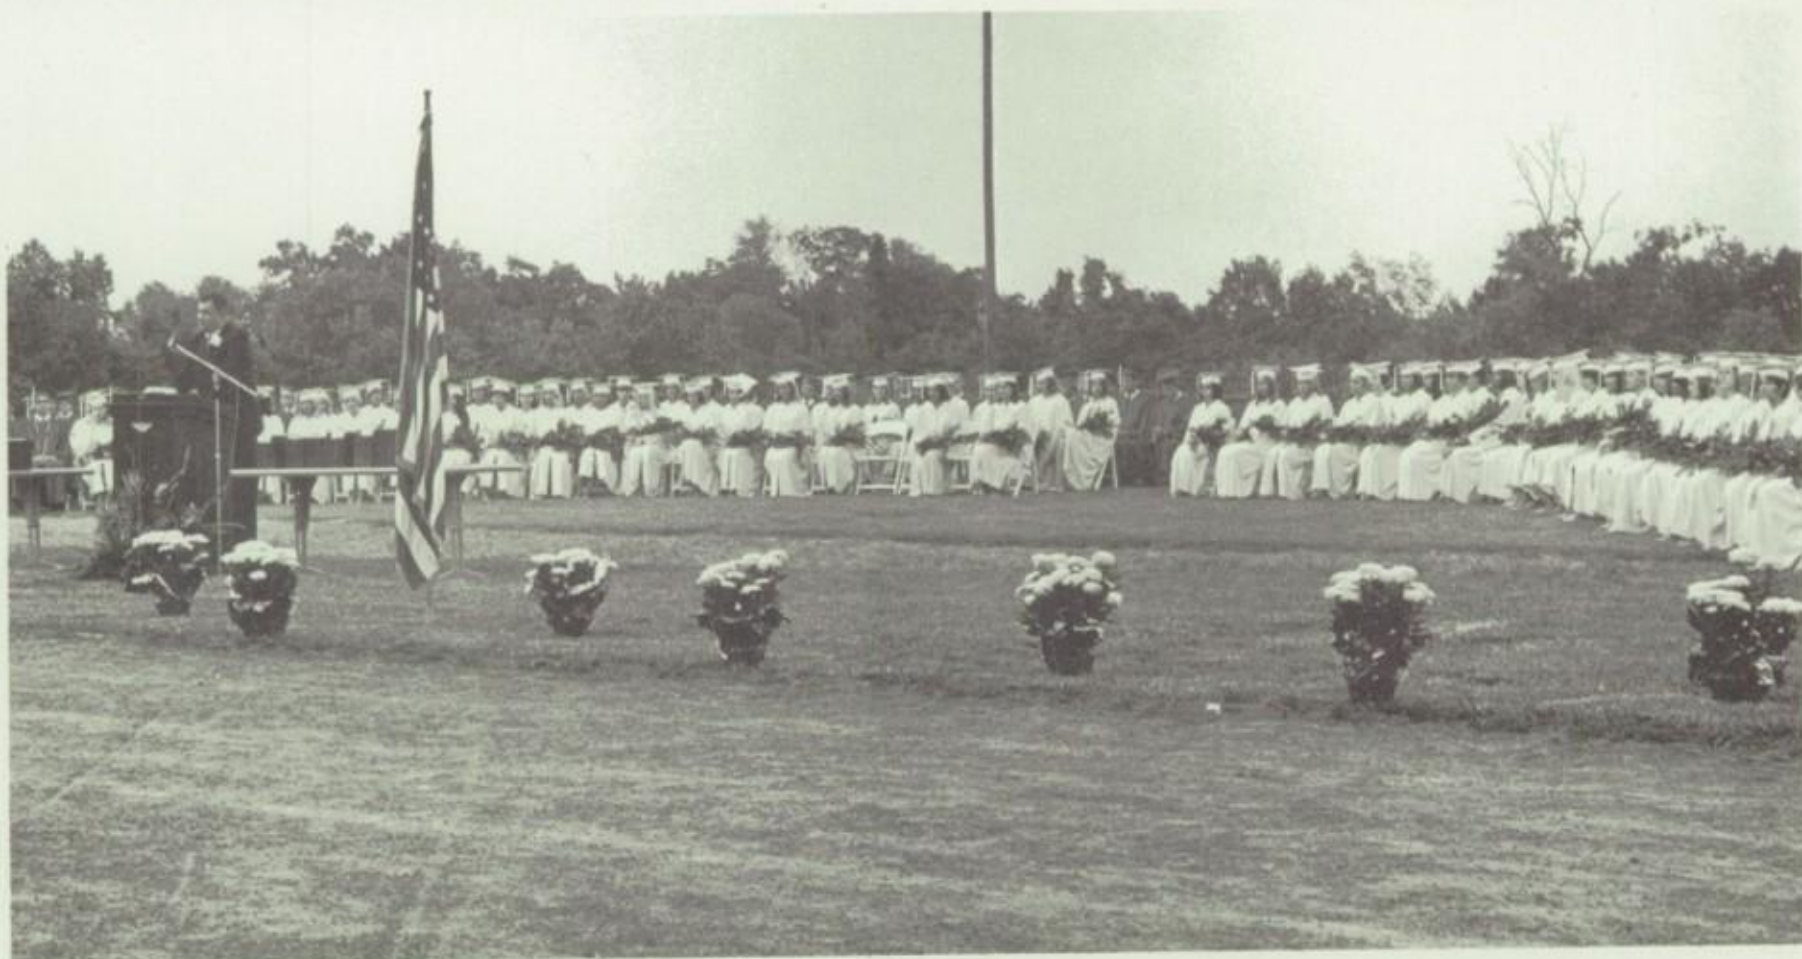

C. William O'Neill, Justice of the Ohio Supreme Court and former Governor of the State of Ohio, delivered the commencement address. Justice O'Neill spoke on the promises and the challenges that the world hold for the graduate of today. Justice O'Neill said that the generation of today can make life on Earth into either a heaven or a hell.

After the program, the Class of 1967, together for the last time, formed the traditional receiving line to be congratulated by friends and relatives.

C. William O'Neill was the commencement speaker.

MARCHING BAND

Under the experienced direction of R. Earl Snapp, the Symphonic Band had a very successful year. The Marching Band gave many excellent performances at the football games, following the theme of "The Wonderful World of Ohio". A performance well-remembered was the playing of the 1812 Overture, accompanied by a spectacular display of fireworks.

At the end of the football season, the marching band became the Symphonic Band and entered an important and difficult concert season. The Symphonic Band presented a concert for the student body of Cincinnati Country Day High School. One of the highlights of the concert was a selection of music depicting the Mardi Gras held each year in New Orleans. The selection was narrated by the band's president, Chris Lohr.

During the annual Bandtasia concert, the Dixieland Band, consisting of Dave Short, trumpet, Doug Seitz, trombone, John Yingst, saxophone, Roger Scroggins, drums, and Doug Driscoll on clarinet, delighted the audience with their rendition of Dixieland Jamboree. In the Spring Concert, the band combined with the Glee Club and Choir to present selections from Brigadoon, and ended the concert with A Patriotic Fantasy by George Cohen. As the Seniors marched to the strains of Pomp and Circumstance on Commencement night, the Symphonic Band ended its 1966-7 season.

Band Council; Dave, Chris, Sandy, and Dianne.

Doug Lovett was this year's drum major.

SYMPHONIC BAND

CHOIR

The Glee Club and Choir provided many hours of entertainment both in and out of school throughout the year. In addition to singing for many of the assemblies, such as the award's day assembly and the Thanksgiving Day program, the Glee Club and Choir also presented several concerts during the year. At the Spring Concert, a program of songs from Brigadoon was well received. Both the Glee Club and the Choir were given highest ratings in the district contest. The Choir went on to the state contest in Columbus where they again received a I rating, which is the highest mark attainable.

GLEE CLUB

The Choir is made up of both girls and boys, while the Glee Club consists only of girls. Mr. Cox directed both the Glee Club and Choir during their fine year.

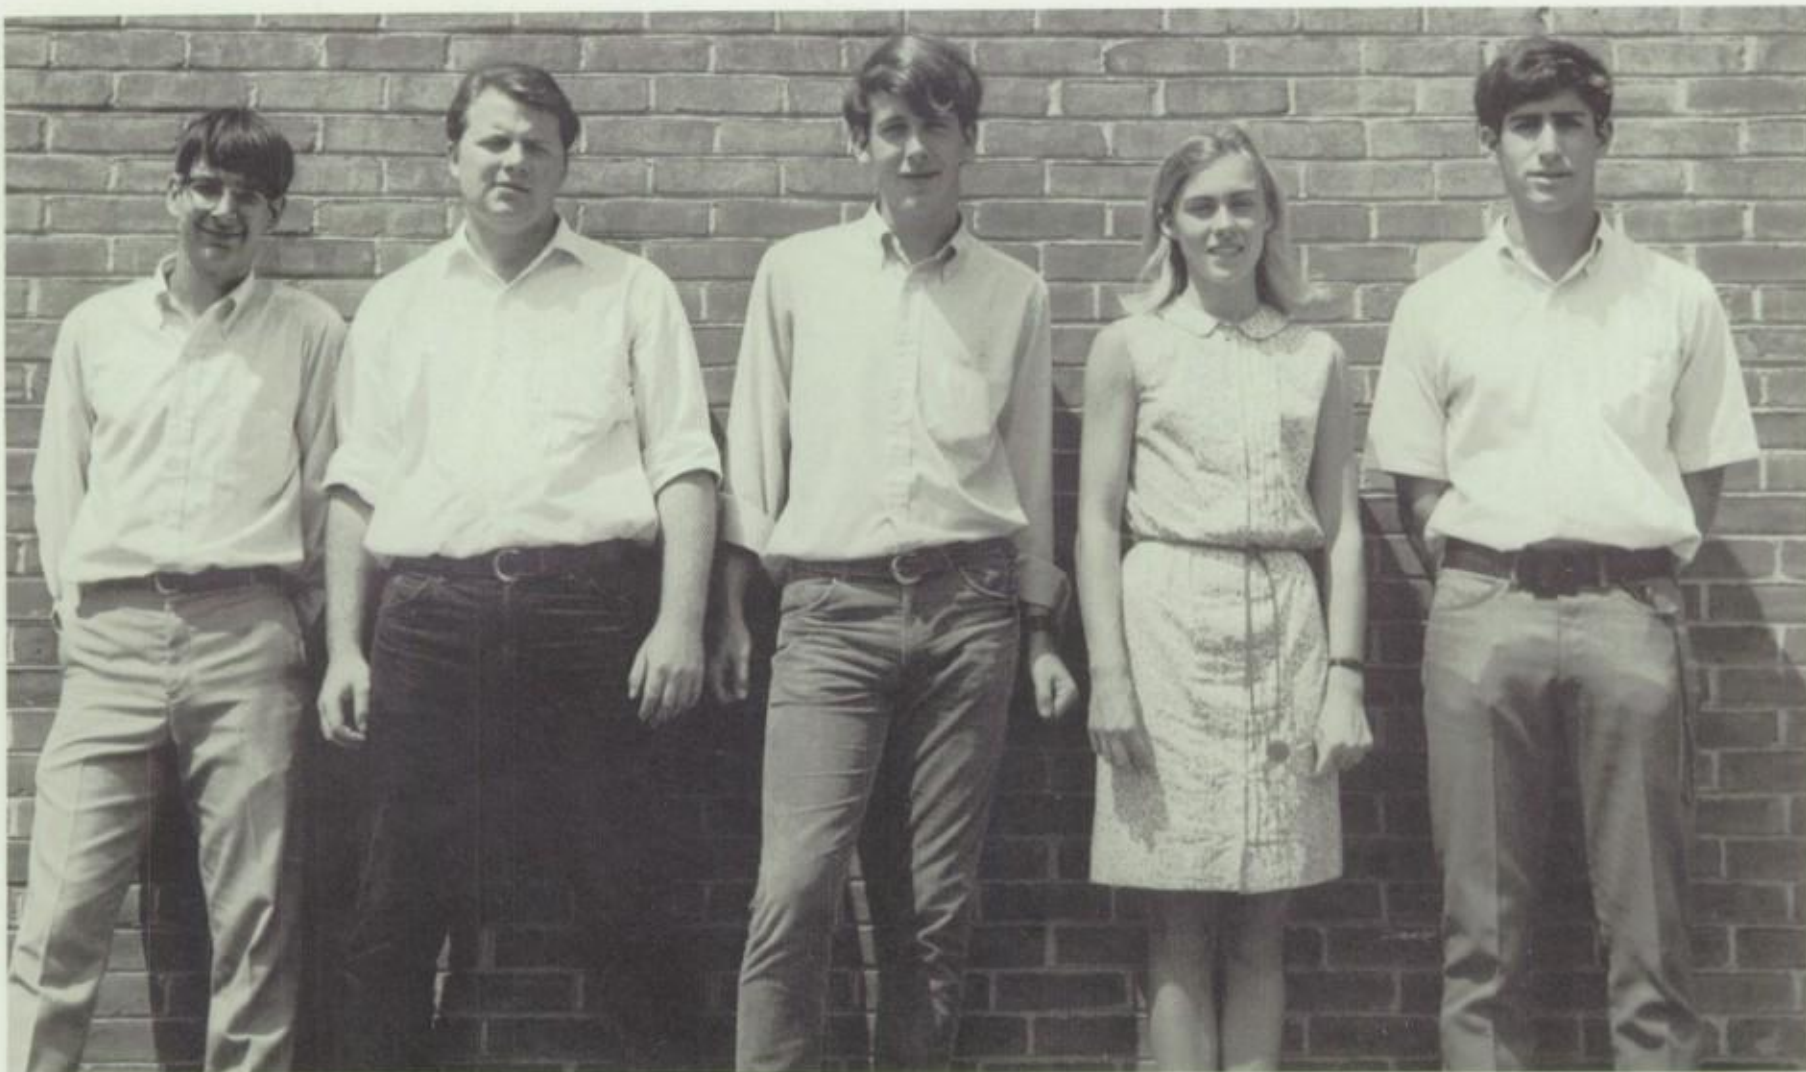

LEGEND

This year's Legend, resplendant before your eyes at this very moment, was the product of many hours of careful labor by this year's staff. Gordon Shick, editor-in-chief, Jim Koch, copy editor, and Tom Siegman, sometime lay-out editor overcame many difficulties and battled the janitors to produce the 1967 Legend. Mr. Denton, in his last year as Legend sponsor, left his post in a blaze of glory.

SPANISH CLUB

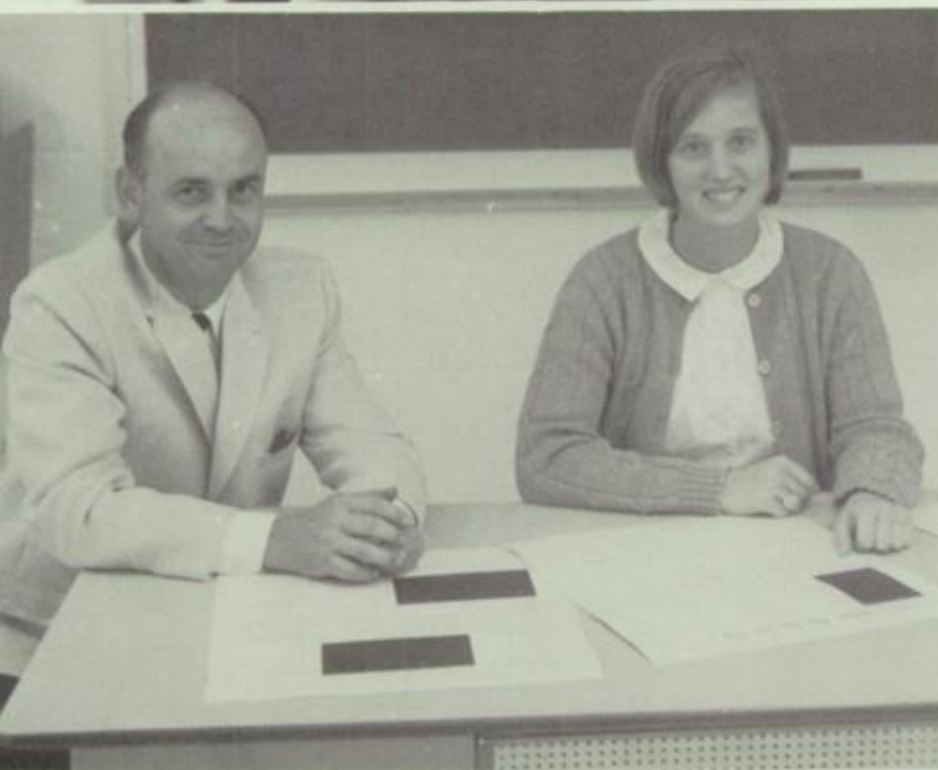

The Spanish Club held regular monthly meetings again this year. At one meeting, Mrs. Patrick gave a travelogue and at another meeting Miss Brown showed slides of her trip through Mexico. The club gave money this year to Operation Ninos to help deprived schools in Latin America. Rob Krehbiel was this year's president, Chris Lohr and Debby Bordenfelter were first and second vice-presidents. Ann Fledderman was secretary and John Krehbiel served as treasurer.

SP. NAT. HON. SOCIETY

The Spanish National Honor Society, sponsored by Miss Ong, is an honorary organization for students who do well in advanced Spanish. Formal initiation is held in November, and in April the society journeys to Columbus for the state convention. In Columbus, Tom Peterson was elected State fourth vice-president and Cindy Stowell was elected State secretary. The society also sponsored the Pan-American Day Assembly at which the play Making The Bear was presented. Officers for this year were John McGara, president, Sandy Nethercott, vice-president, Chris Brenner, secretary, and Holly Smith, ayudante.

CHIEFTAIN

Chieftain editors; Bill, Chris, Laurie, Rae-Jeanne and Doug

Chieftain 1966-67 managed to outdo itself in setting records. Ably sponsored by Mr. Kincaid, the Chieftain produced an all-time high of fourteen issues, quality not withstanding. Editor-in-chief Cindy Brooks and assistant editor Linda Sorensen were aided by a very capable staff: news editor Rae-Jeanne Carr, feature editor Doug Lovett, sports editor Bill Atteberry, clubs editor Chirs Brenner, and production manager Dave Dyer.

One of the most enjoyable issues, the April Fool's edition featured such scoops as "Pow-Wow To Be A Flop" and "Johns Closed Indefinitely". The Senior Issue was the largest, required the latest "late-night", and featured the longest headline in Chieftain history. Imagine that!

DRAMATICS CLUB PRESENTS FOUR ONE-ACTS

Cindy Linnell in the Long Retreat

The Clocks

For the first time in recent years, the Dramatics Club departed from putting on the usual three-act play. Instead, the Dramatics Club produced four different one-act plays. The Staring Match dramatized the story of a prairie town beset by an angel and a devil. The Clocks was an allegory of conformity. Other one-acts were Curse You, Jack Dalton, a melodrama, and The Long Retreat, a tale of the dead.

The Dramatics Club also sponsored projects to give experience in the dramatic arts to those members who did not have a chance to act in the one-act plays. Twelve Dancing Princesses, a children's play written by Holly Heigerick, was presented to various area high schools. Backstage work was also done by many Dramatics Club members who did not get a chance to act. Officers were Chris Lohr, Jay Chewning, Cindy Linnell, Rob Mayer, Kathy Howard, and Sue DeMar.

Jay Chewning and Holly Heigerick were two of the most active Thespians.

THESPIANS

Sponsored by Miss Burwanger, Thespians is an honorary organization for the most active participants in school dramatics. At the annual Thespians contest, Indian Hill presented a cutting from The Staring Match. Out of the eight schools competing, Indian Hill placed first. Jay Chewning received the Best Actor award, and Holly Heigerick and Pam Young were chosen for the All Star Cast. The officers for this year were Holly Heigerick, president, Cindy Linnell, vice-president, Kathy Howard, secretary, and Jim Koch, treasurer. This year's Best Thespian trophy was awarded to Holly Heigerick.

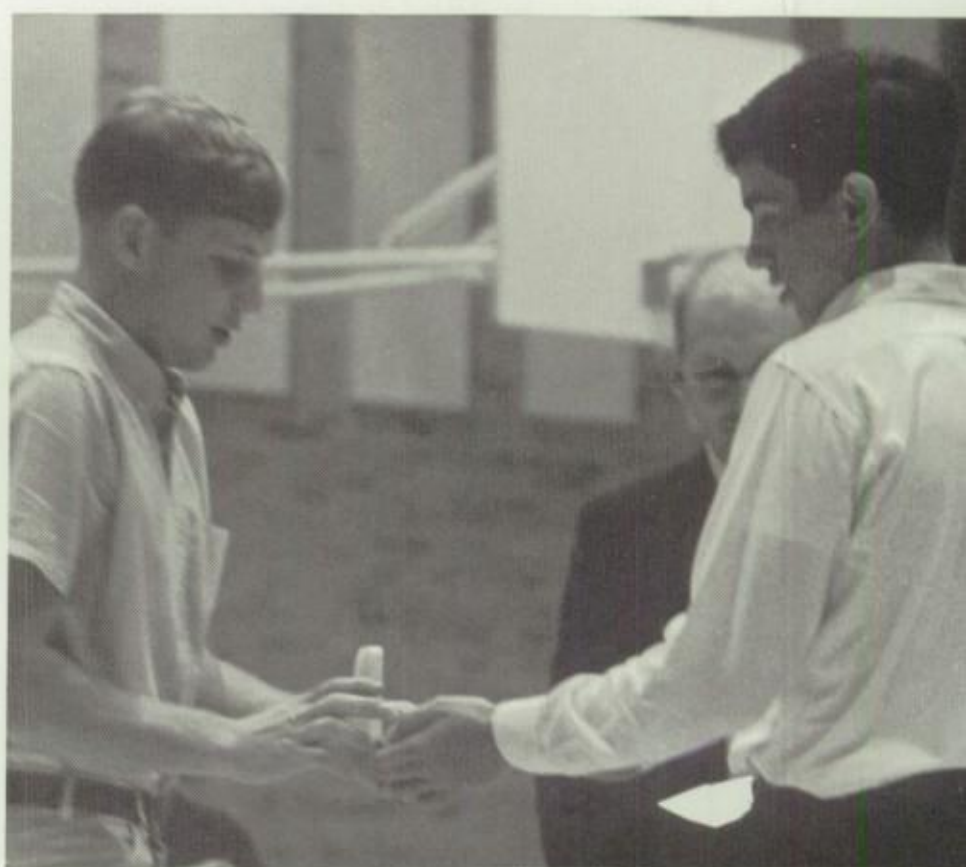

Chuck Johnson received a scholarship to Duke.

AWARDS DAY

Awards Day this year honored many Indian Hill students for their achievements throughout the year. Several students were presented with scholarships to help them continue their educations through college. Book awards were also presented to four outstanding juniors. Presidential awards were given to students who have excelled in physical fitness. National Merit awards were given to senior scholars. Recognition was also accorded to office and library aids for their service throughout the year. Wayne Bladh was presented with a one year subscription to "Reader's Digest" for his scholastic excellence.

Sandy Nethercott was awarded the Sousa Award.

ART CLUB

The Art Club had a very industrious year. Under the direction of its advisory board, consisting of artists like Curt Tweddell, Barb Sanders, Wendy Artzt, Nancy Crull, Tom Siegman, and Tom Sheehy, the Art Club decorated the school on holiday occasions and began work on a life-size paper Mache Indian. In addition, the planned a trip to the Permanent Pigments Plant.

FOLK MUSIC CLUB

The Folk Club, with Mr. Hipple as the new sponsor, had a very good year. Certain members of the club at each meeting, presented the various types of folk music while other members sang. Such concerts as the Peter, Paul, and Mary performances were enjoyed by members of the club. This years officers were President, Cathy Williams, Vice-President, Tom Sheehy, and Secretary-Treasurer, Diane Haas.

MATH CLUB

The Math Club was founded to supplement the normal math curriculum. Towards that end, the Math Club studied two textbooks this year. The first, Sets, Logic, and Axiomatic Theories, was studied with the help of Mr. Connell. The second supplementary text, a "new math" approach to geometry, utilized the set concepts and axioms learned in the first book.

RADIO CLUB

This year, in order to increase the range of the clubs' station, WA80VU, the radio club erected a fifty foot antenna on top of the school building. The tower contrasted well with the warehouse architecture of the academic building. The "ham" operators, under the sponsorship of Mr. Connell, now receive messages from virtually all over the world.

THE MAIZE

The Maize, Indian Hills' cultural oasis, published another fine edition in its second year of existence. As a literary magazine, the Maize thrilled students and faculty alike, with its sublime verse and towering prose. Only original works from Indian Hill students went into the Maize. The Maize was typed, laid out, and printed by students.

F. T. A.

The F.T.A. is a club for those who aspire to teaching careers. President Su DeMar, Vice-President Cindy Mossman, and Secretary-Treasurer Judy Meyer planned activities such as providing teacher's aids and tutoring and enlightening backward students from Madisonville in Project One-to-One. Mrs. Vande Steeg was the sponsor for this year.

DEBATE CLUB

This year was the best yet for the forensic flashes. The varsity debaters copped first place in the Wyoming Invitational Tournament. In addition to debating the topic of Military aid, the club started a junior high debate club. Debate Club Officers were Chuck Johnson, president, Jay Chewning, vice-president, Judy Arms, secretary, and Doug Seitz treasurer.

SPEECH CLUB

The Speech Club, new this year, had a small but active membership. Several of its members entered speech tournaments around the city and many received excellent ratings. At these speech tournaments, the members presented cuttings from plays, dramatic presentations and original oratory. The president this year was Holly Heigerick and Miss Selzer was the sponsor.

CHESS TEAM

This year the chess team was re-organized under the direction of Mr. Bates, and Bill Atteberry was named captain. The team was accepted into the Western division of the Cincinnati Chess League. Against such stiff competition, the chessmen did not fare particularly well, but every match was well fought.

HOME EC

The Home Economics club is a social club, founded primarily to encourage student interest in home-making. The club, sponsored by Mrs. Corbett, met monthly except for February and March. At the meetings, the girls sometimes baked cookies and often they simply talked about matters of current interest.

LIBRARY AIDS

G.A.A.

The Girl's Athletic Association is the largest organization in the school. President Carolyn Naticchioni led them to one of their most active years in 1967. The G.A.A. sponsored several girls sports throughout the year. In addition to track, golf, and tennis, the G.A.A. introduced intramural softball and cross-country. The amazons also organized an Easter party for orphan children. The warm smiles on the faces of the underprivileged children richly rewarded the girls for their efforts.

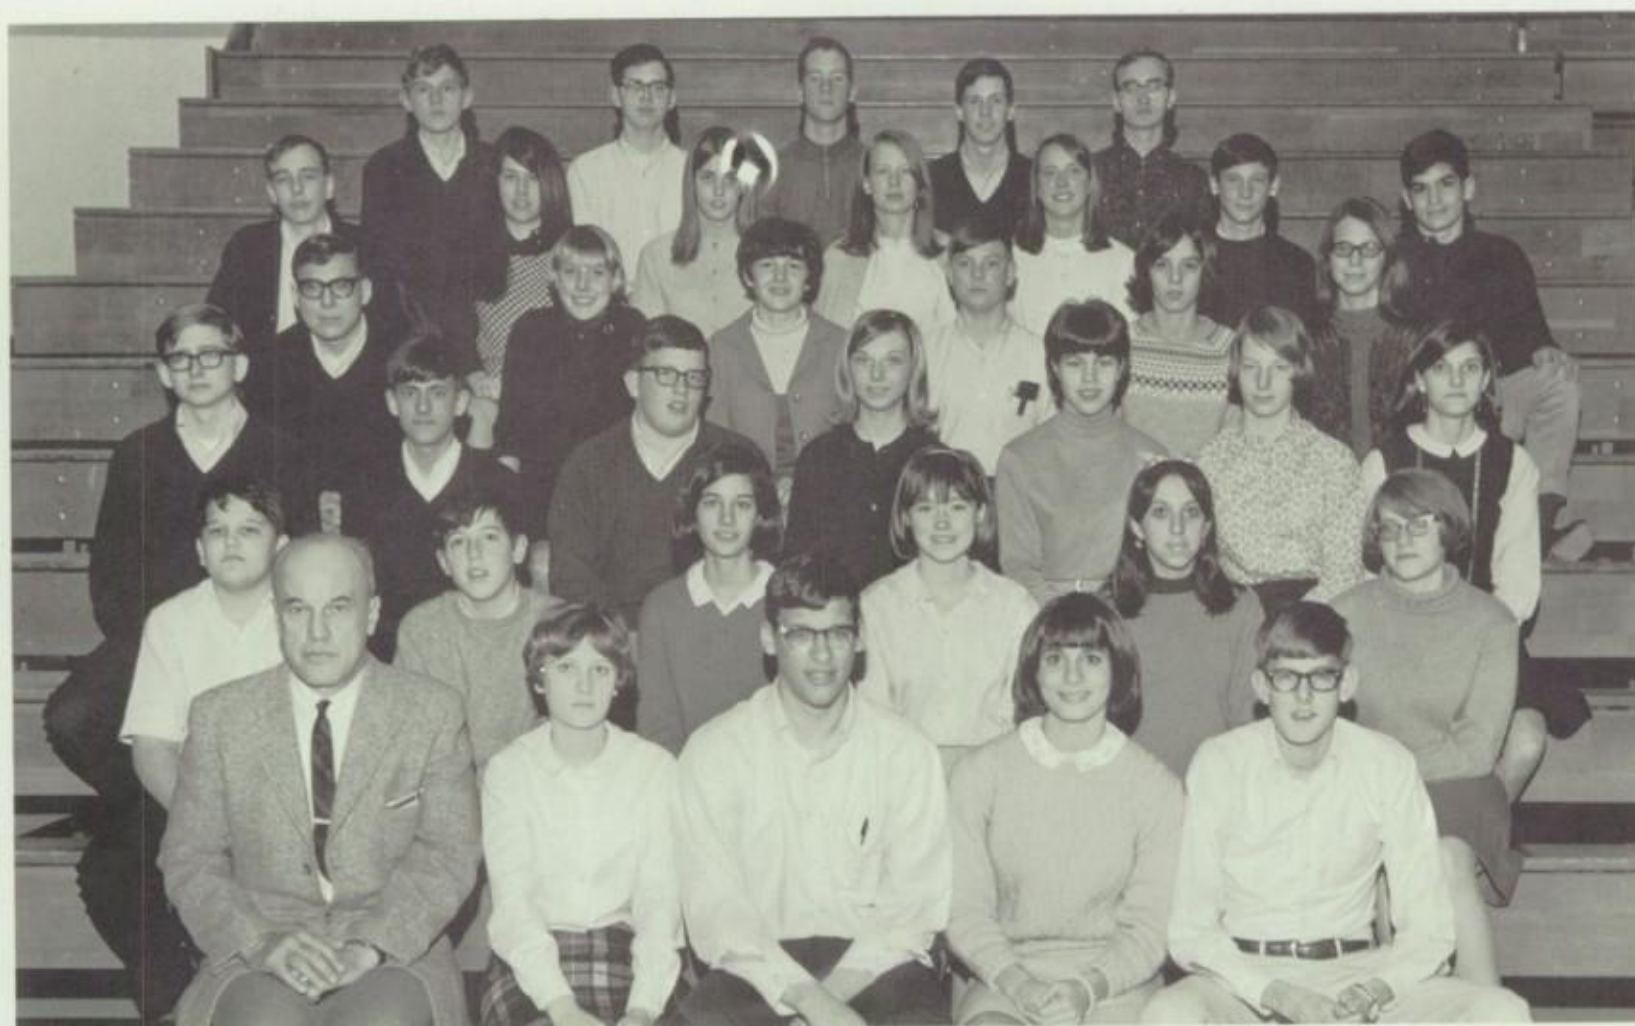

LATIN CLUB

Under the active leadership of Mr. Arthur Blackburn, and Pitt Curtiss, President, the Latin Club had another eventful year. Dr. Archie Christopherson, assistant professor of classics at the University of Cincinnati, spoke to an eager audience at the November meeting. New members were auctioned off as slaves at another meeting.

FRENCH CLUB

Under the leadership of Mrs. Marts, the French Club had an active year. Plans for a week-end trip to Canada were made. The French Club also planned a Christmas play and a Sadie Hawkins dance. Several members joined the Alliance Francaise, and other members enjoyed the French cuisine at the Maisonette. Officers this year were Marilyn Schutte, Emily Bates, Marty Mitchell and Steve Kline.

A MESSAGE FROM THE EDITORS

The 1967 Legend is another indication of an ever-expanding school and student body. This year's staff felt that the time had come to make the transition from the smaller form of past Legends to this larger size, which the editors thought was more appropriate to describe Indian Hill High School in 1967. Other innovations can also be found in the 1967 Legend. The fisheye photography was used to highlight division pages and to strengthen the theme of the school under a microscope. The decision was made early in the year to pick the most attractive cover possible abandoning the traditional red and white. The editors believe that the dark green cover indicates a worthwhile departure from the strict yearbook form used in the past.

Bringing out the 1967 Legend presented many unforeseen difficulties. The initial planning was done by this year's full staff, Gordon Shick, Tom Siegman, and Jim Koch. However, Mr. Siegman was eventually forced by his many other responsibilities to relinquish his position. The increased work load fell onto the able shoulders of the other members of the staff. However, through late night sessions and forfeited holidays, the 1967 Legend was finally completed. The two editors wish to thank all the people who graciously showed up for the Legend staff pictures.

Nonetheless, several people provided much-needed assistance. The editors wish to extend sincere thanks to Bob Sinsheimer, Mrs. Connell, and Pat Mckendrick who supplied us with all of this year's photography. We would also like to thank Mr. Carle Vorpe, for his valuable advice and counseling. As a final word we would like to thank, for his help in nearly all facets of yearbook production, Mr. Castner Denton, our sponsor, friend, and a truly groovy guy.
